From handcrafted brews to signature dining, you'll find an abundance of local flavors and won't leave Kokomo hungry.

When the sun goes down, stay for live music and trendy libations.

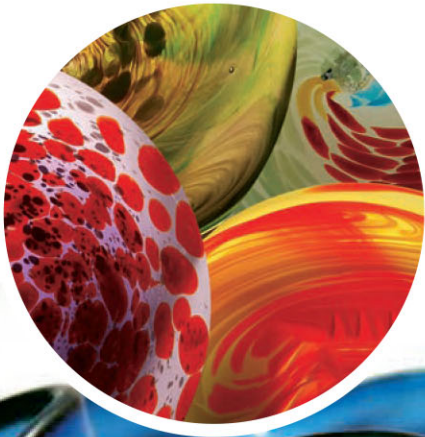

ART ON FIRE

Feel the heat as you watch art glass hand-ladled and rolled at Kokomo Opalescent Glass, America's oldest art glass company. In its original location since 1888, the factory has been making world famous hand-mixed sheet glass using the same techniques from its beginnings.

Stand mere feet away as molten glass is scooped from the 2,500-degree furnace and as artists make hand-blown art glass pieces.

Public tours are available Monday-Friday at 10 a.m., with private tours available. See Page 20 for details.

EXPLORE
the Indiana Glass Trail!

Kokomo Opalescent Glass is on the Indiana Glass Trail. Visit IndianaGlassTrail.com to learn more.

EXPERIENCE DOWNTOWN

Live music, festivals, local dining, eclectic nightlife and diverse shopping — you'll find it all in downtown Kokomo. Set against a backdrop of historic buildings and beautiful public spaces, the city center is home to unique experiences and tastes.

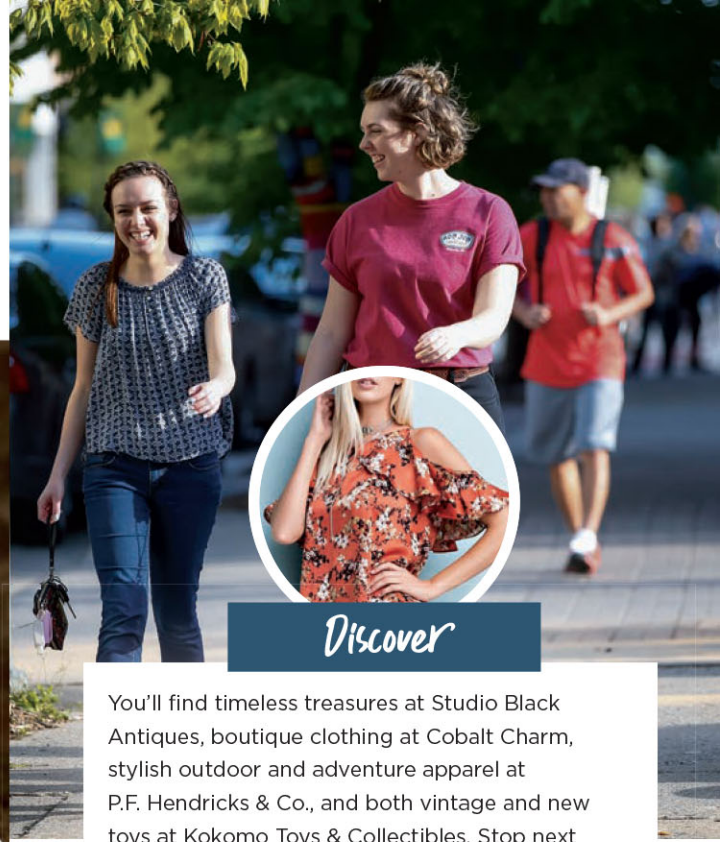

Local Flavor

Enjoy upscale, chef-inspired dining at Marble the Steakhouse, or a taste of Ireland at Cook McDoogal's Irish Pub. Or try other local favorites like Foxes Trail, Missy's Family Restaurant or Main Street Café, serving up a variety of casual fare.

Night Life

When the sun goes down, the party is just getting started at Tin Man Brewing Co., The Coterie, The Cellar, and the Sycamore Social Club.

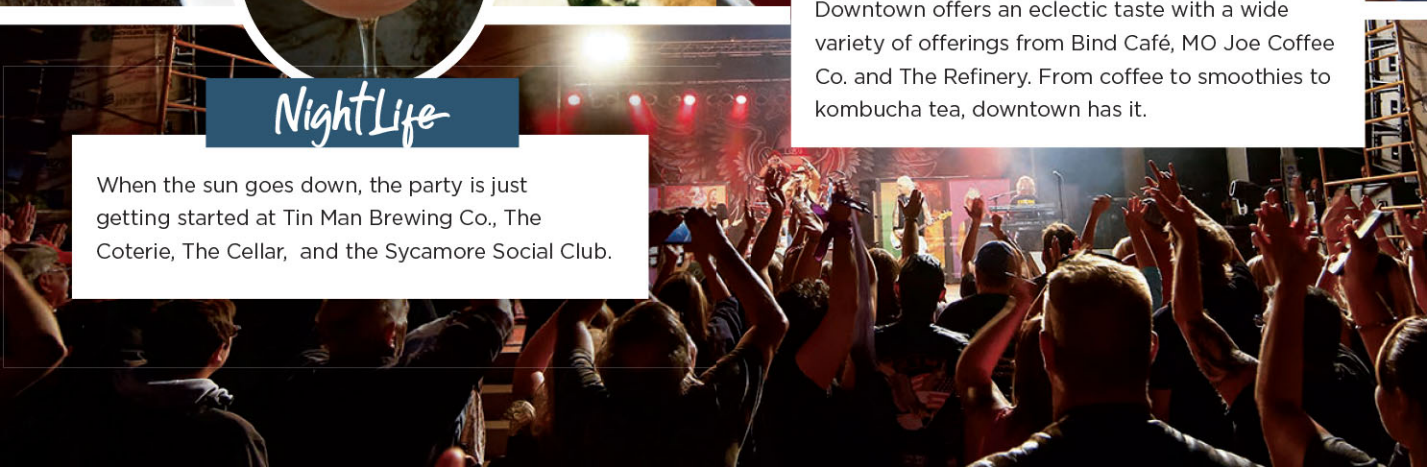

Discover

You'll find timeless treasures at Studio Black Antiques, boutique clothing at Cobalt Charm, stylish outdoor and adventure apparel at P.F. Hendricks & Co., and both vintage and new toys at Kokomo Toys & Collectibles. Stop next door at American Dream HiFi for vintage vinyls and eclectic art.

Refresh

Downtown offers an eclectic taste with a wide variety of offerings from Bind Café, MO Joe Coffee Co. and The Refinery. From coffee to smoothies to kombucha tea, downtown has it.

EXPERIENCE ART

Whether you appreciate traditional, modern or public, art is at the heart of the downtown experience. Here are 5 ways to experience art in downtown:

1. All Alleys Lead to Art

These downtown alleyways have been transformed to showcase all forms of art, from paintings and sculptures to light and sound art. Open 24/7.

2. IU Kokomo Downtown Gallery

Faculty, student and alumni work are presented in rotating art exhibits and installations.

3. Kokomo Artworks Gallery

Artwork created by local and regional artisans is featured through the gallery and studios. Gallery regularly hosts art classes.

4. Bohemian Tattoo Club & Art Gallery

You'll find art on skin, paper and canvas at this shop that is home to renowned tattoo artists.

5. Fired Arts Studio

Sign up for a class or drop in to paint your own pottery, glass mosaics and more.

Take me out TO THE BALL GAME

Spend a summer night late May through August at Kokomo Municipal Stadium, a 4,000-fan capacity stadium in downtown Kokomo that's home to the Kokomo Jackrabbits.

Games here are about so much more than just baseball. At every game, the players and mascot Jax interact and meet with fans.

Want tickets or a season schedule?

Visit KokomoJackrabbits.com

Mascot Jax loves to entertain young fans!

See the players' crisp white uniforms dotting the green field and hear the crack of the bat.

TRIP IDEAS

J. EDWARDS GOURMET

A few hours ...

Take a tour of America's oldest art glass company, Kokomo Opalescent Glass. Experience art glass that is hand-ladled and rolled from a 2,500-degree furnace and watch artists make hand-blown glass creations in the Hot Glass Studio. Public factory tours are offered Monday-Friday at 10 a.m.

Grab lunch at Martino's Italian Villa and taste why it's in the National Pizza Hall of Fame and then indulge your sweet tooth with handmade chocolates and gourmet cakes at J. Edwards Gourmet or Blondie's Cookies, a Kokomo original!

ELWOOD HAYNES MUSEUM

One day ...

Immerse yourself in the life of Elwood Haynes, inventor of the early automobile, stainless steel, and the regulated thermostat, at the Elwood Haynes Museum located in his former home.

Then, spend the afternoon in downtown Kokomo with unique restaurants, diverse shops, and walking/biking trails. Make sure to visit Kokomo Artworks Gallery, located next to Artist Alley, and nerd out at Kokomo Toys & Collectibles and Comics Cubed on "Geek Street."

In the evening, enjoy a fine dining experience at Marble the Steakhouse in Kokomo's historic train depot or catch a Kokomo Jackrabbits baseball game at Kokomo Municipal Stadium.

IU KOKOMO ART GALLERY

A few days ...

Once you've toured the Elwood Haynes Museum and Kokomo Opalescent Glass, visit Indiana University Kokomo Art Gallery for fine art exhibitions by local, regional and national artists, as well as IU students.

Get a bite to eat at Prodigy Bar & Grill Kokomo between stops at Greentown Glass Museum and Grissom Air Museum's 15-acre air park featuring two dozen military aircraft and indoor aviation exhibits.

You'll also want to see the beauty of the stunning Seiberling Mansion, built in 1891 by industrialist Monroe Seiberling. Stop in at Popcorn Café to find over 50 flavors of popcorn, retro candy and vintage sodas.

Enjoy signature BBQ at Half Moon Restaurant & Brewery or an authentic Italian meal at PASTArrific Italian Restaurant. Then finish your day with a craft beer at Tin Man Brewing Co. or cocktails at The Coterie.

COMMUNITY HISTORY

Community Heritage

Originally home to the Miami Indians, Howard County was formed in 1844 as the state's last named county. Settling here in 1840, David Foster established the county seat through a donation of 40 acres north of the Wildcat Creek. Named for the leader of the nearby Indian village, Kokomo was incorporated as a town in 1855 and a city in 1865.

For more history, visit Kokomo Early History Learning Center's website at KokomoEarlyHistory.org

ELWOOD HAYNES STATUE

History of Innovation

In the 1880s, discovery of natural gas in Howard County attracted manufacturing, commerce and people. Kokomo is home to numerous inventions and technological innovations, including stainless steel tableware and the first commercially successful gasoline-powered automobile, which inventor Elwood Haynes test-drove on July 4, 1894.

 snap a pic!

Step into History

Discover our community's rich automotive heritage through local Hall of Fame landmark memorials:

- 1894 replica Haynes Art & Photo Car in downtown's Artist Alley
- Elwood Haynes statue and historical marker next to Seiberling Mansion
- Apperson Brothers statue display at Kokomo Municipal Stadium
- Howard County Automotive Heritage Hall of Fame at Kokomo Event & Conference Center
