

Industrial Heritage Trail Experience Map

Located alongside some of Kokomo's most historically significant historical sites, the Industrial Heritage Trail runs north and south in Kokomo. This 5.77 mile trail connects walkers, runners, and bicyclists to Kokomo Opalescent Glass, downtown Kokomo, and the Nickel Plate Trail.

NICKEL PLATE TRAILHEAD

Dedicated trail parking located near the pedestrian bridge over IN 931 connecting the Industrial Heritage Trail to the Nickel Plate Trail, a 40+ mile paved trail that extends from Kokomo to Rochester.

SPLASH PAD - AL BERRYMAN PARK

Take a break and cool off. Splash pad open seasonally.

DEPOT DISTRICT - DEPOT PARK

Play ping pong, corn hole or just relax at this trailhead park on the north side of Kokomo's historic train depot. You can check out game paddles and accessories at the nearby restaurants.

DOWNTOWN DISTRICT

Live music, public art, festivals, local dining and diverse shopping, you'll find it all in the Kokomo Downtown District. The city center is set against a backdrop of historic buildings and beautiful public spaces. As you enjoy the trail, take a break at a number of downtown eateries and unique shops.

Take in local art at a number of galleries, public art spaces in alleys, and along the trails throughout the downtown district.

ARTIST ALLEY

210 N. Main St. (400 feet east of trail)

Take in the painted and sculpted art pieces of our current annual exhibit. PHOTO OP! Get a selfie while sitting in an art replica of a 1894 Elwood Haynes historic automobile.

VISITOR CENTER/MAIN LIBRARY

220 N. Union St. (.3 miles east of trail)

Find local and state travel resources, including a map of downtown and nearby attractions.

BIKE SHARE

Borrow a bike and hit the trails!

KOKOMO OPALESCENT GLASS

1310 S. Market St. (500 feet west of trail)

Tour America's oldest art glass company. Tours offered Monday-Friday at 10 a.m. Gift shop offers unique hand-blown glass creations, all locally made.

DEFENBAUGH TRAILHEAD